

Food, Water and BOUNTIFUL LIVING

Family Fun Event

Held in conjunction with the Sammamish Valley Harvest Festival

3 DAYS: September 26, 27 & 28

Friday, Sept. 26

11 am to 6 pm
Farm Market Open
Food Demos: Fall Soups
Building Tours, Farm Tours

7:30 pm
Growing Cities
Film Screening
and Discussion

Saturday, Sept. 27

10 am to 4 pm
Farm Market Open
Food Demos: Fall Soups
Building Tours, Farm Tours

FREE CLASS
10 am to 11:30am
A Hands-On
Drip Irrigation Lab

11:30 am to Noon
and 1:30 to 2 pm
Perspectives on Local Food
Pre-Order Lunch

FREE CLASS
Noon to 1:30 pm
Intro to Permaculture
& Edible Landscaping

FREE CLASS
2 pm to 3:30 pm
Building a Permaculture
Garden with Drip Irrigation

2 pm
Growing Cities,
Film Screening
and Discussion

4-5 pm
Amuse-Bouche
Paired with Wine
on the Farm

5:30 pm
Growing Cities,
Film Screening
and Discussion

Sunday, Sept. 28

5 pm
Growing Cities
Film Screening
and Discussion

Saturday:
Join us at 21 Acres
Enjoy 3 FREE Classes:

#1 A Hands-On Drip Irrigation Lab
Carey Thornton, Seattle Tilth, will help you simplify watering with this low-cost method.

#2 Introduction to Permaculture and Edible Landscaping
Local landscape designer and author, Jessi Bloom, will share how she uses permaculture tools to create sustainable home landscapes.

#3 DIY — Build a Permaculture Garden Using Drip Irrigation
Combine concepts gleaned from the first two classes and build a drip-irrigated system designed to expand your garden options — Led by Mark Edwards of Ally Tree Care.

Take what you learn and do it at home!

Saturday:
All-Day Fun
for Kids with Nature Vision!

Adults take classes while kids have fun!

See Water-Saving Ideas On-Site for Growing Food:

Self-Watering Planters,
Compost Sox,
Vertical Gardens

Saturday:
Amuse-Bouche

Tastings Paired with Wine on the Farm — Pre-register Online

Showing
Fri, Sat & Sun

Uplifting and Forward Thinking Film:
Growing Cities

An inspiring documentary film showcasing urban environments where citizens are creating alternative food systems and building community.

Tickets: $5

Saturday:
Perspectives
on Local Food

Eat Lunch and Learn from 21 Acres Kitchen Team
Pre-order Online

21 ACRES
growing eating living

More online:

21acres.org | 13701 NE 171st Street, Woodinville | (425)481-1500 | generalinfo@21acres.org

Fresh Thinking Food, Water